THE PREZ SEZ:

Hello Exchangites!

Happy New Year, Exchangites! I hope you and your families enjoyed the holidays.

Speaking of the holidays, wasn't our Christmas party fun? We enjoyed delicious food catered by Jacksonville's own Effina's, and entertainment provided by singing sisters Jennifer Brannon and Cindy Garman. Our auction – always a high point of our Christmas party – raised more than $1,100 for Jacksonville Christian Outreach Center. Thanks to everyone who attended, and a special thanks to Rachel Rogers and her deputies, Sandra Sudduth and Linda Douglas, for pulling together a splendid party!

There is a lot going on! We are, of course, preparing for our first club meeting of 2012. And we are in the midst of two of our biggest club fundraisers: Selling pecans and ushering at JSU men's and women's basketball games. There are still pecans available for all those winter goodies so if you need any, please let a board member or officer know. And if you haven't ushered a JSU basketball game yet, you're missing out. In fact, you'll get to hear from JSU head women's basketball coach, Annette Watts, at our next club meeting. She is a dynamic and inspiring speaker, so don't miss it! And please remember to tip your waitress!

Yours in Exchange,
Rena Comisac
