Hello Exchangites!

Busy, busy, busy! Get out your calendar and make note of several important Exchange Club events coming up. Please join us on Thursday, November 10, for our annual One Nation under God program. The program will begin promptly at 11:30 a.m. at the McWhorter Center of the First United Methodist Church here in Jacksonville. The program will feature songs sung by the Kitty Stone Elementary second graders, followed by a delicious lunch. The One Nation committee will begin decorating at 10:45 a.m. -- if you'd like to pitch in, please do so even if you're not on the committee. Many thanks to Sandra Sudduth, chair of the One Nation committee, for organizing this year's event. Following our One Nation program, the Give a Kid a Flag to Wave committee will hand out flags at Kitty Stone Elementary for its afternoon Veteran's Day program. Children will begin assembling for the program at 1:45 p.m., so if you would like to participate please be at the school by 1:15 p.m. Don't forget to check in at the office first! Thank you John Ratliff and Sonja Parris for organizing this year's event.

Pecans are coming! We will be selling shelled pecan halves and chocolate covered pecan halves for $10 per 16 ounce bag. And they are fresh! If you or your business would like to sell pecans (or if you'd just like to buy some for yourself), please preorder them by (1) writing your name, contact information, and number of cases on the signup sheet that will be circulated at our next meeting, or (2) contacting me or David Glass directly.

Exchangite Steve May is spearheading Operation Christmas Child to provide gifts and necessities to needy children this holiday season. Collection of donations will be November 14-21. Steve is also partnering with Carlton Weathers of Grace Fellowship on Micah's Hope, a ministry to provide financial assistance to prospective adoptive parents. If you would like more information about either of these worthy projects, please contact Steve.

Our annual Christmas party will be on Thursday, December 8, at 6:00 p.m. at the Jacksonville train depot. Please be thinking about items to donate for our ever popular (and competitive!) auction. A signup sheet will be circulated at our next meeting. If you have not yet signed up, please do so. For more details, please see Rachel Rogers.

Let's all get out this weekend and support our Gamecocks at the last home football game of the season. Go JSU! AND the Southerners band will host its annual HUGE reunion! Come on out as they fill the field with music by current and former band members! (Full show after the game) And you know what this means -- basketball season is right around the corner. Ushering at JSU basketball games is a major fundraiser for our club. Volunteers get complimentary admission to the games, see some great college basketball, and raise funds for our community – an all-around win. Signup sheets will be circulated at our next meeting, or contact Billy Blount, Lamar Sims, or David Glass for a schedule.

Yours in Exchange,

Rena Comisac
